AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

Since opening in July 2001, the American Airlines Center® has set a new standard for sports and entertainment and has become the premier venue of the South. It's grand complex with sweeping vistas and inviting passages comprise five concourses, 142 luxury suites and room for 20,000 fans or 18,532 Hockey Fans. The American Airlines Center has not stopped gaining recognition, recently it was rated one of the best facilities in the country by its fans in the "Voice of the Fan" JD Powers and Associates Survey. In 2002, it was named The Best Sports Venue by the Dallas Observer and received the 2001 "Best New Concert Venue" award from Pollstar Magazine.

Designed by world-renowned architect David M. Schwarz and Dallas based HKS, Inc., the American Airlines Center is a combination of traditional architecture and hi-tech wizardry. Outside, the signature arches are warm and inviting, Inside, the retractable seating brings the bowl closer to the action, allowing fans a more intimate experience and exceptional sight lines. With 2 years of experience under it's belt, the American Airlines Center is flying high and bringing the hottest sports and entertainment to Dallas!

In its two-year history, the American Airlines Center has hosted close to 6 million guests at a variety of sporting and entertainment events. Over 50 musical artists have performed including sold out performances from The Eagles, Cher, Billy Joel and Elton John, Shakria, The Dixie Chicks, Fleetwood Mac, George Strait, Bruce Springsteen, and Britney Spears to name a few. It has also hosted family shows such as Disney on Ice, Stars on Ice, Champions on Ice, Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey and has received The Most Valuable Player Award two years in a row from The Harlem Globetrotters for the highest attendance and gross for the Blue Tour. World Wrestling Entertainment has become a frequent guest at the Center producing Monday Night RAW, Smackdown and house shows six times since its opening. The American Airlines Center has been no stranger to major sporting events in addition to the Dallas Stars and Dallas Mavericks, the 2002 NCAA 1st and 2nd Round Tournament was played at the Center along with The Phillips 66 2003 and 2004 Men's Big 12 Basketball Tournament. The American Airlines Center also hosted the top figure skaters in the country at the 2003 State Farm U.S. Figure Skating Championships, broadcast live on ABC.

Since opening, the Center has not stopped striving to be the best in the industry. In early 2003, the American Airlines Center's website received a facelift to make it more user friendly. With over 2000 hits a day, guests can see the view from their seat for team events and concerts, see a calendar of upcoming events, print out parking directions, sign up for special discounts and event notices, and provide guest feedback to employees. Each Dallas Stars home game is listed on the event calendar and playoff games are added, as dates are determined. For the latest information on all events at the Center go to: www.americanairlinescenter.com

Beginning in late 2004, DART will open The Victory Station on the west side of the American Airlines Center. Guests will be able to ride DART directly to the venue for all events. Currently, DART buses provide shuttles from the West End to the south entrance of the venue. The Trinity Railroad Express(TRE) also provides service from Ft. Worth for events, excluding Sundays.

While the Texas heat blazes outside, inside the American Airlines Center a constant 64-68 degrees keeps the ice in perfect condition. To maintain this temperature, there is a separate chiller system just for the slab, eight miles of one-inch pipe and 320 tons of refrigeration. In addition, a 3,600-ton air-conditioning system and a dehumidification system extract 500 gallons of moisture per hour during the season. The ice is put into place each September and takes 24 hours to build up to the 1-inch depth the players are accustomed to. The ice stays in the Center until the playoffs are complete and is covered up during the season with a special material called, Ice Deck, a fiberglass product that keeps the ice cold and allows the air temperature above to rise without effecting the ice. Recently, the Zamboni was retrofitted with a Fast Ice system, the latest technology that allows the ice maintenance crew to cut the ice quickly in order to keep the ice smooth and fast.

New technology also helps with quicker conversion between basketball and hockey thanks to the most sophisticated retractable seating system ever designed for a sports and entertainment venue. It's a patented design that allows conversion from an ice rink to a basketball court or concert setting in less than three hours.

When it comes to managing 20,000 guests, the American Airlines Center relies on the latest technology from more than two-dozen Dell Computer Systems Servers. They manage, among other tasks, the venue's lighting, security cameras, ticketing and sound systems. The servers monitor food and beverage sales throughout the building, helping to insure well-stocked concession stands. In addition, computers enable Platinum and VIP guests to order food and drinks from their seats.

And of course, don't forget the digital signage, it starts with an 80,000-pound, eight-sided scoreboard with four video displays and screens set at a ratio to allow future advancements to high-definition television. Game presentation includes a 360-degree high-resolution matrix board located on the facing of the Platinum Level. While viewing the impressive game presentation and better playing conditions, fans are also treated to more comfortable seating. There are 142 luxury suites at American Airlines Center and 1,600 club-level seats. The exclusive Platinum level also includes private conference centers and specialty food and drink bars.

Fans with disabilities will find 524 accessible seats inside the venue and all common areas, vendor spaces, retail stores and restaurants follow federal and state requirements for accessibility. Every luxury suite is accessible as are all 20 family restrooms.

American Airlines Center continues to be a leading facility nationally in the area of minority opportunities. After an agreement between team owners and the city to include at least 26 percent representation of minority contractors in building the facility, the project achieved what is believed to be a national-record of 34.5 percent Minority and Women Business Enterprise (M/WBE) participation- earning the operators the highest recognition from the U.S. Department of Commerce for excellence in their M/WBE programs. The Center continues its commitment to M/WBE firms by continuing to exceed the 26 percent goal for its day-to-day operational use.

FRISCO DR PEPPER STARCENTER

The Dallas Stars have a new home this season, the new Frisco Dr Pepper StarCenter. The team moved into its new practice facility and offices over the summer.

The Frisco arena is the sixth StarCenter Dallas-based Southwest Sports Group has created in the North Texas area. Aside from serving as the training site for the Stars, the facility is also the home to the Texas Tornado of the North American Hockey League. Like other StarCenters, it will also be used for youth, high school & adult hockey leagues, figure skating training & competitions and public skating.

The 211,000 square-foot facility includes more than 15,000 square feet for the team's locker room and workout & rehabilitation area and another 25,000 square feet of offices for the Dallas Stars. It also includes two NHL-size sheets of ice, eight team locker rooms, an arena with approximately 3,700 seats, and a 3,500 square-foot StarStuff store. The Tornado locker rooms and offices comprise an additional 6,000 square feet.

"The first step toward having a championship team is making sure they have the best training facility available," said Stars owner Tom Hicks at the facility's ground breaking in May, 2002. The Stars have achieved that goal with the opening of the new Dr Pepper StarCenter and hope that the quality of the facility will help to lure potential players in the future.

The Dallas Stars are one of the few teams in the NHL to design and build their own practice facility and arena. The team also sets the pace in the NHL among teams that form partnerships with communities to create public skating facilities, a trend which is picking up momentum around the league. The Frisco Dr Pepper StarCenter is almost twice the size of other StarCenters in the Metroplex (Valley Ranch, Duncanville, Euless and two in Plano).

"Our Frisco facility is not only the best practice facility in the NHL, it is also one of the nicest venues for Junior Hockey in North America" said Stars President Jim Lites, "but what makes it even more spectacular is that it is one of the nicest public skating rinks in the world."

Designed by Dallas-based HKS Sports & Entertainment Group, the StarCenter is part of a $300 million development project created by Southwest Sports Group in a partnership with the City of Frisco. When complete, it will include more than 1 million square feet of new residential, retail, office and hotel space in Frisco near Dallas North Parkway and State Highway 121. It is also the location of a new minor league baseball park for the Frisco Roughriders, which opened its inaugural season in spring of 2003.

The new facility is expected to attract approximately 2 million people to visit the Frisco area on an annual basis. Several major events expected to attract competitors from around the world have already been scheduled for the upcoming year, including figure skating competitions and hockey tournaments.

DALLAS STARS COUNTRY CLUB AT STONEBRIDGE RANCH

The Dallas Stars announced in August that the hockey club was entering into a new partnership with ClubCorp, the world leader in delivering premier golf, private club, and resort experiences, to create The Dallas Stars Country Club at Stonebridge Ranch, formerly The Clubs of Stonebridge Ranch. The club is located in McKinney, Texas.

The country club will be the first of its kind - a private club with membership benefits and unique amenities themed by a professional sports franchise. A renovation of the property's clubhouse is scheduled, with a variety of upgrades planned throughout the club quarters. Dallas Stars décor will be featured in the clubhouse, along with framed photos and memorabilia. Replica trophies that the Stars have won will also be on display, including the Stanley Cup.

A new logo has also been designed for the country club, featuring the club's crest and the hockey team's distinctive star. The logo will be featured on country club merchandise.

As a benefit of being Dallas Stars season ticket holders, each Stars account will receive a Stars membership to the country club, with the opportunity to upgrade to a DFW Society Membership (a membership that provides privileges to 23 Dallas area clubs and special events). Each Stars account will also receive two rounds of golf at the country club and season ticket holders will have special opportunities to upgrade their membership at Dallas Stars Country Club at Stonebridge Ranch. In addition, a variety of activities will be planned for club members and season ticket holders, both at the country club and the hockey club's new home in nearby Frisco, Texas.

Stars season ticket holders received full information about the new benefit in the mail in August. Interested season ticket holders can utilize their Stars membership at the club or upgrade to another membership level upon receiving the information in the mail and registering with the country club.

"We're very excited to be involved with ClubCorp and the new Dallas Stars Country Club at Stonebridge Ranch," Stars President Jim Lites said. "This will be a one-of-a-kind country club that we are thrilled to add as a benefit for our season ticket holders. Our research shows that a good number of our season seat holders play golf, and we feel that this really adds value for our best customers."

Existing golf members of The Clubs of Stonebridge Ranch will receive several benefits from the new partnership, including vouchers for complimentary tickets and a parking pass to a Dallas Stars game each season. Members also will have the benefit of purchasing Dallas Stars tickets at season ticket prices, as well as receiving invitations to all season ticket holder functions with a priority option to purchase tickets to team luncheons and other special events. They also will receive a discount on all hockey and learn-to-skate programs at Metroplex Dr Pepper StarCenters.

"We have great respect for the Dallas Stars organization," said Bob Dedman, chairman and CEO of ClubCorp. "We hope this agreement will be a model for similar partnerships in the future."

"We are looking forward to the association with the Stars," said Jack Matz, chairman of the Board of Governors of Dallas Stars Country Club at Stonebridge Ranch. "I believe this relationship will truly add value to our membership offerings."

Renovation construction on the Dallas Stars Country Club at Stonebridge Ranch begins in Fall, 2003 and is expected to be completed by Spring, 2004.

THOMAS O. HICKS
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD AND OWNER

Six Division Championships, three Western Conference crowns, two Presidents' Trophies as the team with the best regular season record, two consecutive trips to the Stanley Cup Finals and the 1999 Stanley Cup Championship are the highlights of the Dallas Stars' rapid ascent in the eight years since Thomas O. Hicks contracted to purchase the hockey club in December 1995. Mr. Hicks serves as the Stars' Chairman of the Board and as the club's representative on the NHL Board of Governors. He has also played an instrumental role in the development and planning of American Airlines Center.

Mr. Hicks has been instrumental in the pursuit and acquisition of a number of big-name players for the Stars since he took ownership of the club. His influence allowed the Stars to trade for Joe Nieuwendyk, who eventually won the Conn Smythe Trophy as Playoff MVP during Dallas' Stanley Cup title season of 1999. He played a significant role in bringing Ed Belfour and Brett Hull, both major contributors on the Stars' Cup-winning team, to Dallas as free agents and during the 2002 offseason, he invested in such marquee names as Bill Guerin, Scott Young and Philippe Boucher. He has clearly been the driving force in the Stars' commitment to remaining among the NHL's elite.

Mr. Hicks, 57, is Chairman of the Board of Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst, Incorporated, a Dallas-based private investment firm formed in 1989, specializing in strategic investments, leveraged acquisitions and growth acquisitions. Since its formation, Hicks Muse has successfully raised over $12 billion of private equity funds, has consummated over $50 billion of leveraged acquisitions and has been one of the most active private investment firms in the country.

Mr. Hicks serves as Chairman of Southwest Sports Group, Inc., a Dallas-based sports entertainment company that encompasses the Stars, Major League Baseball's Texas Rangers, the Mesquite Championship Rodeo, a one-half owner of Center Operating Company that is operating American Airlines Center and a one-half ownership of the Frisco RoughRiders, the Texas Rangers' Double-A affiliate. Southwest Sports Group is also a co-developer of the Victory project in downtown Dallas, the expansive real estate development project at and around the Ballpark in Arlington, and the sports-entertainment complex, hotel and convention center in Frisco, TX, that includes the Dallas Stars' new training headquarters and practice facility, the Frisco RoughRiders, a minor-league baseball stadium and other office, residential and entertainment development around the sports complex.

In June of 1998, Mr. Hicks became the owner of the Texas Rangers Baseball Club. Under his ownership, the Rangers won the American League West Division crown in both 1998 and 1999.

Mr. Hicks graduated with an MBA from the University of Southern California in 1970 and a BBA from the University of Texas in 1968.

Mr. Hicks has strong ties to the Dallas community and has provided continous support to numerous organizations, including United Way, Goodwill, The Dallas Museum of Art, The Dallas Symphony Orchestra, The Science Place at Fair Park, Austin Street Shelter Ministries and Happy Hills Farm for Boys. In addition, he has held charity board memberships with United Way, Special Camps for Special Kids, and was the 1996 co-chair of the Dallas Jewish Coalition for the Homeless "Vogel Alcove" project. Mr. Hicks was honored as the recipient of the 2000 Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award from the Anti-Defamation League. He has also been a past recipient of the Father of the Year award in Dallas. Mr. Hicks is the father of six children, and he and his wife, Cinda, reside in Dallas.

JIM LITES
PRESIDENT

Jim Lites returned as President of the Dallas Stars on November 26, 2002. He was originally named President and Alternate Governor of the Dallas Stars on June 9, 1993, having served in that role with the team for nine seasons before joining the Phoenix Coyotes in March of 2002.

During his eight months spent in Phoenix, Lites was President and Chief Operating Officer of the Coyotes, Arena Management Group, LLC, and Coyotes Charities. In these capacities, he oversaw all business operations of the Phoenix organization. He was also instrumental in the design and groundbreaking of the Coyotes' new arena, and in the increase of sponsorship and season ticket sales for the team.

Returning to Dallas with a reputation as one of the finest administrators in hockey, Lites, 50, will oversee all aspects of the Dallas Stars organization, including finances, marketing, advertising, public relations, promotions, ticket sales, budget development and broadcasting agreements. An influential member of the NHL's Board of Governors, he has been on the league's board for 20 consecutive seasons. He is now one of the longest tenured board members, having served at different times on the NHL's broadcast, expansion, marketing and executive committees.

Since he first joined the Stars, the team has won six Division Championships, three Western Conference Championships, two Presidents' Trophies and the 1999 Stanley Cup. Under Lites' guidance, the Stars popularity has been unmatched by any other sports franchise in Dallas. He also played an active role in the original conception, design, sales and marketing efforts of American Airlines Center.

Lites was named President of the Texas Rangers of Major League Baseball on May 7, 1999, becoming one of four executives in professional sports to head the front office of more than one organization. He was on the board of Major League Baseball for three years, and had the same responsibilities with the Rangers that he had with the Stars before leaving for Phoenix.

Prior to joining the Stars in 1993, Lites served 11 years as Executive Vice President of the Detroit Red Wings. Before his involvement with the Red Wings, they had missed the NHL Playoffs in 10 of the previous 11 seasons. During his tenure, the Red Wings won three Norris Division Championships, two Norris Division Playoff Championships and were named by Financial World magazine as the most valuable franchise in the NHL in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Lites was also instrumental in the defection of former Soviet stars Sergei Fedorov, Vyacheslav Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov, all important parts of the Red Wings' record-setting and Stanley Cup Champion hockey clubs.

While with Detroit, Lites also served as Chief Operating Officer of Olympia Arenas, Inc., one of the Midwest's largest facility management companies. He was also responsible for the redevelopment of Detroit's historic Fox Theatre, now the most successful entertainment venue of its type in the United States and the cornerstone of Detroit's growing northside sports, entertainment and gaming complexes.

Born and raised in Pentwater, Michigan, Lites received a bachelor of arts degree with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1975 and graduated cum laude from Wayne State (MI) University Law School in 1978. He specialized in litigation and labor contract negotiations when he practiced law.

Lites has two children, daughter Brooke, 19, a freshman at the University of Michigan, and son Sam, 14. He is a member of the Lone Star Dallas Chapter of the YPO and is involved in many charities and civic enterprises in the Dallas area.

DOUG ARMSTRONG
GENERAL MANAGER

Doug Armstrong begins his second full season as general manager for the Dallas Stars and is entering his 13th year with the organization.

Having been appointed to the general manager position on January 25, 2002, Armstrong's first full season resulted in the club's sixth Division Championship in seven years and a Western Conference-high 111 points. Armstrong has been a member of the Stars organization in each of the club's 10 years in Dallas and has helped lead the franchise to two President's Trophies, two Western Conference titles and the 1999 Stanley Cup.

Armstrong's first move as G.M. was a major one, dealing for forward Jason Arnott at the trading deadline during the 2001-02 season. He then made several key moves during the summer of 2002, including the hiring of Dave Tippett as the team's 19th coach in franchise-history. Armstrong then hired Andy Moog and Mark Lamb to complete the coaching staff, and brought back Stars fan favorite Guy Carbonneau to the post of special assistant to the G.M.

Armstrong then made a splash on the free agent market, signing defenseman Philippe Boucher and wingers Scott Young and Bill Guerin to long-term contracts. Guerin was considered the prize free agent in the league and a cornerstone player who would immediately solidify the Stars' Stanley Cup chances.

Armstrong stood pat on the goalie front, deciding to stick with Marty Turco, and the netminder played his way into Vezina Trophy consideration. And prior to the start of last season, Armstrong acquired defenseman Stephane Robidas, who turned out to be one of the year's most pleasant surprises.

During the 2002-03 season, Armstrong engineered a trade for former Buffalo captain Stu Barnes and signed long-time Boston alternate captain Don Sweeney in the summer.

Prior to being named the team's seventh general manager, Armstrong served nine years as the assistant general manager under Bob Gainey. As Gainey's assistant, Armstrong worked on contract information and season scheduling, and handled the day-to-day operations of the hockey department.

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Armstrong is the son of NHL Hall of Fame linesman Neil Armstrong who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991.

Armstrong and his wife, Kelly, son, Blake, and daughter, Kayla, live in Coppell, TX.

FRANCOIS GIGUERE
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Francois Giguere enters his second season with the Dallas Stars organization, having come from the Colorado Avalanche/Quebec Nordiques where he served as vice president of hockey operations for the 2000-01 season, assistant general manager from 1995-00, administrative assistant from 1993-95 and controller in the finance department from 1990-93.

A graduate from Laval University in 1985 with the equivalent of a CPA degree, Giguere was hired to his current position in January 2002. As Doug Armstrong's assistant, Giguere works on contract negotiations, maintains constant communication with the Utah Grizzlies hockey operations department, is responsible for developing and tracking the budget for the hockey operations department and coordinates the creation of Dallas' regular season schedule with the NHL.

NHL Record

On October 14, 1995, the Stars set a franchise record for the fastest three goals in a game, scoring three times in 44 seconds of the final minute of the third period to cap an exciting 6-5 comeback victory over Boston at Reunion Arena. Trailing 5-3, Kevin Hatcher banged home a rebound at 19:11 of the third period to pull the Stars within one goal. At the 19:44 mark, Mike Modano fired a wrist shot past Bruins' goalie Craig Billington to even the score at 5-5. On the ensuing face-off, Mike Kennedy hustled to the corner to Billington's left, dug the puck loose and sent a centering pass to Guy Carbonneau, who fired the puck past Billington at 19:55 for the win. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the only game in NHL history that a team trailed by two goals in the final minute of the game and came back to score three goals and win the game in regulation.

RETIRED NUMBERS

#7 NEAL BROTEN 1981-97

Neal Broten finished his NHL career as the most decorated player ever born in the United States. As early as high school he was a champion, taking his Roseau, MN high school to three Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournaments. He would go on to lead the University of Minnesota to the 1979 NCAA Championship and was awarded the first-ever Hobey Baker Award as the nation's top collegiate hockey player in 1981. Broten entered history in 1980 as he helped the "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic team win the gold-medal. He was the last member of that squad to play in the NHL.

Broten, fittingly, scored his first career NHL goal in his first career NHL game with the Minnesota North Stars on March 31, 1981 vs. St. Louis. In his first full season, 1981-82, he was named the franchise's Rookie of the Year after setting team records that still stand for most goals, assists and points by a rookie (38-60-98). Sixteen seasons later, Broten retired as the club's all-time leader in games played (992), assists (593) and points (867) and is fourth in team annals in goals (274). The team's Most Valuable Player in 1984 and 1986, Broten participated in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1986. In that 1985-86 campaign, he became the first American-born player to record 100 points (105) and set the current club mark for assists in a season with 76. Overall, he holds or shares a total of 12 Stars records.

Moving with the team to Texas in 1993, Broten scored the first-ever goal in Dallas Stars history on October 5, 1993 against Detroit. He was dealt by the Stars to New Jersey in February of 1995, where he achieved his remaining goal. Having been to the Stanley Cup Finals twice before with the Stars (1981,1991), he played an instrumental role in the Devils' Stanley Cup victory in 1995, finishing second on that championship club with 19 points (7-12-19) in 20 playoff contests. Broten began the 1996-97 season with New Jersey, and had a brief stint with Los Angeles before the Stars reacquired him off waivers on January 28, 1997. Finishing the season with Dallas, Broten totaled 923 points for his career, the second-highest point total ever for an American-born player behind only Joe Mullen (1,063).

In June of 1996, Broten was honored with USA Hockey's Distinguished Achievement Award and in April of 1997 he was named to the All-Time USA Hockey First Team. In addition, he was selected as USA Hockey's Player of the Decade for 1976-77 to 1985-86 and in the Summer of 1997 was named a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, one of only two players (Ken Morrow) to win the Award twice, having won it the first time as a member of the 1980 gold medal USA team. Broten's number seven was retired by the Stars on February 7, 1998 and he was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000.

Bill Masterton was a member of the Minnesota North Stars inaugural 1967-68 NHL team. He played two seasons of professional hockey for Hull-Ottawa of the EPHL in 1961-62 and Cleveland of the American Hockey League in 1962-63. The North Stars retired Masterton's jersey number in memory of the only professional hockey player to lose his life because of an injury suffered during an NHL game. Masterton hit the back of his head on the ice on January 13, 1968 against Oakland, and passed away two days later. The North Stars named the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup Award in his memory, presenting it to the North Stars player voted most valuable by his teammates during the season. Masterton's number 19 has never been worn by another North Star and was retired on January 17, 1987.

#8 BILL GOLDSWORTHY 1967-77

Bill Goldsworthy started his career as a North Star in 1967 when Minnesota selected him from Boston in the 1967 expansion draft. He made his name with the North Stars through goal-scoring and the invention of the Goldy Shuffle. Goldsworthy set marks throughout his career, becoming the first player from a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. In 1971, Goldsworthy became the team's leading scorer and goal scorer, a mark he held for over a decade. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a North Star until 1981-82 and he averaged over 30 goals a year during his Stars career. In 1976, Goldsworthy became the first North Star ever to reach the 500-point plateau. In 670 games with Minnesota, he totalled 267 goals, 239 assists for 506 points. Goldsworthy's number eight was retired on February 15, 1992.

EARLY DALLAS HOCKEY HISTORY

Many people do not realize that the roots of professional hockey in Dallas date back to the fall of 1941. It was a strange and unusual site, as the Fair Park Ice Arena welcomed the sport from the North to the citizens of Dallas for the first time. Advertised in the papers as "The most dangerous game in the world...murder on ice, it has been called...with playing speed, flashing blades and crashing bodies," the lights came up on a debut unlike any other.

In the spring of 1941, Clarence E. Linz announced his team, the Texans, would be starting play the next year, joining the American Hockey Association along with a candidate from Fort Worth. As President of Ice Sports, Inc, Linz would become instrumental in not only creating the Texans, but later, bringing in ice shows, including the famous Sonja Henie Ice Show, to the State Fair each fall.

1946-47 DALLAS TEXANS

Taking the helm of the Texans in their inaugural year would be player/coach Leroy "Goldie" Goldsworthy. A former National Hockey League player, he spent nine seasons in the big leagues, scoring 123 total points off of 66 goals and 57 assists while playing for the New York Rangers, Detroit Red Wings, Chicago Blackhawks, Montreal Canadiens, Boston Bruins and New York Americans. It was through his many years with the NHL that he hoped to be able to find players with experience who could help him in his new endeavor.

Of the original team, only Paul Runge and Pete Palangio had seen time in the NHL, with Paul playing from 1930 to 1938 with Boston, the Montreal Maroons and the Montreal Canadiens while Pete suited up for the Canadiens, Red Wings and Blackhawks from 1926 to 1938.

On November 6, 1941, hockey made its debut in Dallas with the first of 50 games, 25 at home. Fans could get in the game for the mere general admission price of 55 cents. Three thousand reserve seats were available from 80 cents up to $1.20, while boxes and rinkside seats would run you anywhere from $1.65 to $2.25.

Opening night was truly a spectacular gala. With World War II raging, Linz made the decision that 50% of the proceeds would be donated to the United China Relief Fund. Organized by Mrs. William M. Lingo, Jr. and the Dallas Club women, they hoped to raise $2,500 during the evening with Chinese candies and cakes sold by girls in Chinese costumes during the game. First time patrons to hockey, must surely have been somewhat confused by the multi-cultural surroundings of this strange sport.

Matching up against the St. Paul Saints in their inaugural game, the Texans played in front of a near capacity crowd of 4,273. Tony Licari scored the team's first goal, but the Saints, behind three power play goals, stole the home team's thunder by winning the game 4-1. George Higgins, President of the American Hockey Association, pronounced the game a success and was pleased with the condition of the arena and the number of spectators.

The season continued with Dallas fighting, many times literally, for a playoff spot. Going into the final night of the season, Dallas remained one point ahead of Tulsa for the final playoff spot. The Texans had been clinging to a three point lead, only to see it evaporate after a 4-2 loss to St. Paul in front of 2,500 fans on honorary newspaper boy night. Dallas would go home early in their inaugural year, losing out on the money to be made in the postseason. In the playoffs, the major share of the gate receipts went directly to the players.

It would be the last time many of these men would come to Dallas. The horrors of World War II and the continued involvement of the United States and Canada forced the cancellation of hockey in the south and meant the end of the American Hockey Association.

Dallas would not see hockey again for four years.

Hockey was back in "Big D" for the 1945-46 season, as Linz once again brought the Texans to life, this time joining the Kansas City Pla-mors, Omaha Knights, St. Paul Saints, Tulsa Oilers, Fort Worth Rangers and Minneapolis Millers in the United States Hockey League.

The fight to make the Texans had been tough as those who were cut would go to Eastern League teams where the salaries were nearly one-half of those in the USHL.

On October 10, 1945, Linz announced Leroy Goldsworthy would return as coach and introduced the team's first player, 20-year-old goaltender Al Picard. Goldsworthy rated the youngster so highly, he expected to sell him at the end of the season to an NHL club.

With Roy McBride the oldest man on the team at 24, many of the players ranged in age from 17 to 20. Only Lloyd Finkbeiner had seen action in the NHL, playing one game with the New York Americans in 1940-41 and going scoreless, while only Hugh Currie ever would in the future. During the 1950-51 season, he played in one game for Montreal, going scoreless.

Opening night brought a crowd of 4,300. Fans were able to purchase their rinkside seats for a mere $2.00 while others ranged from $1.00 to $1.50 with general admission at 70 cents. It was an exciting and hard fought contest as the home favorites beat Tulsa 5-3, having been led by Lou Smrke who tallied a hat trick with three goals.

The heroics and joy of opening night were short-lived. The 1945-46 season proved to be a roller-coaster ride of ups and downs. At the end of February, the Texans set a new league record of two consecutive losses by the largest margin, having been defeated by Kansas City 13-1 and then Tulsa 12-1. In their next two games, the club set a new league record for two consecutive wins by the largest margin, beating both Kansas City and Minneapolis 10-2. Such was the '45-46 season.

The rivalry with Fort Worth continued as former Texan Paul Runge now coached the Rangers. The two teams met for the last time on March 13 in front of 4,204 people in Fort Worth and played to a 3-3 tie. New goalie Nick Pidsodny stopped 50 shots on the night, including 11 in the 10 minute overtime.

The season ended on March 19, 1946. The Dallas Morning News announced this as "the biggest hockey season this city has ever had." In the final game, the Texans faced league leader Kansas City in front of a near capacity crowd of 5,000. It was rumored that the Pla-mors wanted to run up the score to show their dominance heading into the postseason. The home town team caught wind of this plan and set out to foil it. Playing what the paper called, "the fastest and most rugged athletic competition ever unreeled on a local battlefield," the Texans gave Kansas City a 5-1 lashing.

The 1946-47 team brought in new players as well as a new coach while the league accepted a new team - the Houston Huskies. George Boothman was signed on to take the helm for Dallas as well as play center for the club after captaining the Buffalo Bisons to the AHL Championship in 1946.

The Texans proved to be one of the strongest in the USHL that year. After winning their opener on October 24, 8-4, over Tulsa, behind John MacKenzie's two goals in 20 seconds, they came back and defeated Omaha, 2-1, in front of 4,100 fans to jump into first place.

First place is where they remained throughout the season. Despite the replacement of Murray Armstrong for George Boothman as player/coach, the team finished on top of the Southern Division with a 27-18-15 record and 69 points.

In the post-season, Dallas entered as the top team in the Southern Division, but due to the scheduling format, was forced to play the best team in the league, the Omaha Knights, who had a 29-16-15 record. The Texans dropped the series to Omaha in six contests.

With the start of 1947-48 season, a few changes were in store for the league and in particular the Texans. Jim Hendy took over as the new President of the USHL while on the local scene, Lex Cook took over coaching duties for the Dallas club.

Another difference for the Texans was their agreement to be for the first time a farm team for the powerful Montreal Canadiens of the NHL. Despite this seemingly quality improvement though, the Texans were in for a rough year.

Points would come hard for the Texans as they finished with the worst record in the league that season at 21-39-6 for only 48 points. Leading scorer for the club was Gord Petrie with 62 points off of 13 goals and 49 assists while Nick Pidsodny was the top netminder on the team with a 4.18 GAA, 10th in the league. For the season-ending All Star squad, Jake Milford, a player/assistant coach for the Texans, was the only member named, earning a spot on the First Team.

The Texans inter-state rival from Houston took home the Paul W. Loudon Trophy as league champions, defeating Minneapolis three games to two.

Things could only get better for the local team when the 1948-49 campaign opened. Lex Cook was returning as coach of the Texans with the Montreal Canadiens still providing some exciting skaters to stock the club.

A bright, new addition to the team was Joe Bell, who was sent down from Montreal after playing parts of two years with the New York Rangers in the NHL. In his 62 games in the big-time, he had totaled 17 points (8-9-17). Also, coming to Dallas was the fiery goaltender Paul Bibeault.

TEXANS ACTION FROM 1947-48

In his seven seasons in the NHL from 1940 to 1947, he recorded 3.65 goals against average while playing in a combined 297 games for Montreal, Toronto, Boston and Chicago.

Introduced to members of the media by officials of the Ice Cycles of 1948, an exhibit at the Texas State Fair, the team also featured newcomers George Bougie, Jimmy Moore and a young kid name Howie Morenz, Jr. - the son of the Hall of Famer who played with Montreal, Chicago and New York from 1923 to 1937.

With the season starting, the Texans were one of the youngest clubs on the circuit, featuring no less than six players making their professional debuts. Because of this, coach Cook pleaded with the Canadiens to send down some help for the home opener. Montreal responded with Roger Leger, Todd Campeau, Jacques Richard and Jimmy Galbraith. Leger, who played with Montreal the previous season when they went to the Stanley Cup Finals, volunteered to go to Dallas so he could take off some of the weight he had acquired over the off-season.

By the time the Texans rolled into town for their home-opener, they were already in last place with a 1-3-1 record. Squee Allen was now suffering from a broken leg and was out. And netminder Bibeault, who was called "belligerent" by the local media, was leading the league, in of all things, penalty minutes and, prior to their home game with St. Paul, was stricken with Pleurisy and wasn't able to suit up.

But Lex Cook's prophesies that "once this young team gets their feet wet, they'll be something," began to come true. By season's end, the Texans had surged into second place in the Southern Division, finishing with a 24-27-15 record with 63 points. Gordie Petrie once again led the team in points, finishing fifth in the league with 24-57-81. Joe Bell (37-38-75) and Dennis Filion (22-38-60) also ended among league leaders, while Bibeault recorded a 3.78 goals-against average with two shutouts. He would end up winning both the Herman W. Peterson Cup for Most Valuable Player and the Charles Gardiner Memorial Trophy as the USHL's best goaltender.

Named to the season-end All Star Team were Bibeault, as the First Team goalie, and Tom Rockey, the USHL's leading defenseman scorer, and Joe Bell as Second Team All-Stars.

In the playoffs, the Texans faced off on March 22, 1949 against their rivals from Fort Worth in their best two out of three quarterfinal series. The Rangers had won six of their last seven going into the post-season while Dallas had lost five of their last seven.

Roles would be reversed, however. Behind Joe Bell's hat trick and the outstanding play of Bibeault in net, Dallas handed Fort Worth an 8-0 loss in the opening game in front of 4,000 fans. The shutout was the first in USHL playoff history, proving to doubters that the feisty netminder deserved his regular season awards.

After winning the second game 5-3, Dallas moved on to Tulsa in the semi-finals who were the Southern Division champs during the regular season. The Oilers quickly disposed of the upstart Texans, knocking them off 4-1 in both games to move into the finals. It was the St. Paul Saints, winners of the Northern Division with 82 points, who took home the title though, defeating Tulsa four games to one.

The end of the 1948-49 season brought the end of professional hockey to the Dallas area. Due to increased travel costs, Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston all dropped out of the USHL. The league would thrive for two more seasons, adding teams from Louisville, Milwaukee and Denver, before finally bowing out all together after the 1950-51 campaign.

Upon their withdrawal from the USHL, the three Texas teams made plans to form an new league, along with Wichita, called the Texas Hockey Association. Chrys Kelly of Dallas was to serve as President with the league expanding into places like San Antonio, Shreveport and New Orleans by 1950. The new organization, though, failed to materialize, leaving Dallas without professional hockey for the next 18 years.

Before the Stars arrived in Dallas for the 1993-94 season, the Central Hockey League operated a team in Dallas from 1967-1982 called the Dallas Blackhawks, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Blackhawks. The CHL returned for two seasons in 1992-93 and 1993-94 with the Dallas Freeze before that club ceased operations.

PLAYOFF FORMAT

The National Hockey League's 30 clubs are aligned into two conferences, each consisting of three divisions. Sixteen teams will qualify for the 2004 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

First-round playoff berths will be awarded to the first-place team in each division, as well as to the next five-best teams (based on regular-season point totals in each conference). The three division winners in each conference will be seeded first through third (in order of points) and the next five-best teams (in order of points) will be seeded fourth through eighth. In each conference, the team seeded #1 will play the team seeded #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6 and #4 vs. #5 in the Conference Quarterfinal round. Home-ice in the Conference Quarterfinals is granted to those teams seeded first through fourth in each conference.

In the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals, teams will be re-seeded according to the same criteria as the Conference Quarterfinals (division leaders will be seeded first and granted home-ice advantage while the remaining teams will be seeded in order of regular-season points).

Home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup series will be determined by points. All series are best-of-seven.

STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Dallas Stars take great pride in their accomplishments on the ice, but are just as proud of their off-ice efforts to make our community a better place to live. The Stars support charitable programs that enhance the lives of our youth and serve other members of the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex.

Hope for the Holidays
During the holidays, the Dallas Stars and Texas Rangers hold a baby care item drive benefiting Captain Hope's Kids. Items such as diapers, baby clothes and blankets are collected in November and December, and distributed to homeless infants and toddlers throughout the Metroplex.

Hospital Visits
The Stars strive to bring hope and happiness to families in need, particularly during the holiday season. The Stars players visit Children's Medical Center of Dallas and Cook Children's Hospital in Fort Worth each year to sign autographs, take photos with the kids, and hand out holiday gifts.

HockeyFest
In Summer 2003, the Stars introduced HockeyFest, a free, open-to-the-public hockey-mania event. Over 6,000 showed up to participate in the many interactive games and exhibits, obtain Stars player and Ice Girl autographs, complete a scavenger hunt, and test out the latest hockey equipment. The first-ever HockeyFest was an enormous success, proving that the Metroplex has the best hockey fans bar none!

Dallas Stars Foundation

The Dallas Stars Foundation was established to serve as a positive force throughout the Dallas/Ft Worth Metroplex. The Foundation focuses its efforts on providing support to children of the community so they may lead quality lives and develop into contributing members of society. Through teamwork, interaction, and education, the Dallas Stars Foundation works to bring together all members of the Metroplex and build a bright future for today's youth. Foundation events and programs include the following:

Ron Tugnutt and his teammates visit local children's hospitals during the holidays.

Grants and Scholarships
Twice each season, the Dallas Stars Foundation makes monetary grants to local children's charities in support of a variety of programs. In the past four years, the Foundation has donated over $1.6 million in grants. The Foundation annually awards Jr. Stars and Star Champions Scholarships to young hockey players and figure skaters who train at DrPepper StarCenters. The Foundation also awards the Bob Gainey Honorary Scholarship to a very deserving Metroplex high school senior each spring based on his/her academic performance, community involvement and financial need.

STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night
In February 2004, the Stars will hold their 7th Annual Park Place/Dallas Stars Casino Night, an evening of fun and elegance featuring the Stars players as guest casino dealers. The event also includes autographs and photos with the players, a cocktail buffet courtesy of Maggiano's Little Italy, speetacular live and silent auctions and great casino prizes.

NHL StreetStars
This off-ice league-wide initiative provides youth with an inexpensive recreational alternative while cultivating a new generation of hockey playing fans. StreetStars, which currently operates in 14 centers in the Metroplex, allows over 1,500 children to learn and practice street hockey skills, play in organized games and receive playbooks designed to reinforce the rules of the game. Each StreetStars annual season culminates with the Metroplex Championships in the spring.

Stars I.C.E.
The Stars I.C.E. (Inner-City Experience) program allows children in low-income, at-risk areas of the Metroplex to experience the excitement of ice hockey. Over one hundred children from throughout the area participate in a day of skating and hockey at Dr Pepper StarCenters and have the opportunity to apply for additional complimentary ice hockey instruction. The program emphasizes to children the importance of working towards goals and believing in themselves.

Dr Pepper Luncheon Series at Maggiano's Little Italy
In January, February and Mareh, the Stars host luncheons at Maggiano's Little Italy in Northpark to benefit the Foundation. The luncheons provide a casual, intimate setting in which guests may ask questions of the Stars players, coaches and management.

The Dallas Stars and their pets are featured in this calendar, the proceeds of which benefit the Dallas Stars Foundation and the SPCA of Texas. The calendar has become quite popular, with sales extending throughout North America. Calendars are available beginning in mid-October.

RadioShack Stick With Reading
In an effort to combat the problem of illiteracy, the Foundation has developed the RadioShack Stick With Reading program. Since its inception in 1998, over 125,000 Metroplex students have participated in the program, which gives children the chance to win incentive prizes and a visit from a Stars player by recording their extracurricular reading over a six-week period.

StarSchool
The Dallas Stars feature educational programs on their website (www.dallasstars.com). The site provides weekly lessons on geography, mathematics, physics and literature for kids of all ages.

Guaranty Bank/Whataburger Stick With Writing
The Guaranty Bank/Whataburger Stick With Writing story and illustration contest is open to public, private, and home-schooled students in grades k-4. First, second, and third place winners in each grade category receive backpacks full of art and writing supplies, and the top winners are honored at a Stars game.

Newspapers in Education
In conjunction with The Dallas Morning News, the Foundation sponsors a Newspapers in Education Character Education program. Lessons appear in the Texas Living section of the paper each week for January through March. Using the Dallas Stars players as examples, this curriculum addresses such topics as impartiality, prudence, selflessness, dependability, optimism, integrity, temperance, and forgiveness. Thousands of students across North Texas participate in the program each year.

High School Media Day
Every fall, high school journalism students are invited to take a tour of the team's practice facility, enjoy lunch, watch a Stars practice and take part in a question and answer session with members of the local media and select Stars players. The students then return to their schools and write articles on the experience for their school newspapers. The Stars select a winning article, the author of which is invited to sit in the American Airlines Center pressbox during a Stars game.

Donate-A-Skate
The Dallas Stars Foundation and DrPepper StarCenter offer the Donate-A-Skate program through which free skate parties are donated to qualified charity organizations. Each month one charity will be chosen, and their representatives, volunteers and service recipients will be invited to enjoy skating at a Metroplex Dr Pepper StarCenter complete with refreshments and Stars goodies.

Tickets for Kids
Season ticket holders are encouraged to return to the Stars any game tickets they are unable to use. The Dallas Stars Foundation then donates them to sick or underprivileged children who would otherwise be unable to attend Stars games. Hundreds of children have been able to enjoy Stars games through this program over the last several seasons.

SPORTS MEDICINE GLOSSARY

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this joint.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months rehabilitation.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

Hematoma: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and /or loss of function.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.
Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Sprain: A joint injury to a ligament(s). A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament. 1st Degree - a stretching but no tear of a ligament. Athlete may be able to continue to play or usually return to play in a few days. 2nd Degree - A partial tear of a ligament. Bracing may be required. Athlete will usually miss one to four weeks. 3rd Degree - A complete tear of a ligament. Depending upon ligament involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete is usually out from three weeks up to twelve months depending upon course of treatment.

Strain: A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon. 1st Degree - A stretching but no tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete may be able to continue to play or usually return to play in a few days. 2nd Degree - A partial tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete will usually miss one to four weeks. 3rd Degree - A complete tear of a muscle or tendon. Depending upon muscle or tendon involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete is usually out from three weeks up to twelve months depending upon course of treatment.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
